

Mrs. Ashline - Algebra 2 (11th grade), Non-Regents Trig (11th grade), and Algebra A-1 (9th grade)

- a. Writing utensils: pens (no green ink accepted) and/or pencils
- b. Notebook: loose-leaf or spiral that you will be able to take additional notes. Since they are not collected you can share with another class (i.e. 5 or 3 subject).

Mr. Bardis – Health

1 Clear or Translucent Pocket Folder (somewhat see through)

Mr. Borrie –

Global 9:

Three-ringed Binder (1.5 and higher)

Binder Dividers (4)

Notebook (composition or standard one-subject)

Pens/Pencils

Global 10 UN:

2 Three-ringed Binders (one for class and one for country log book) [1.5 and higher]

Binder Dividers (4)

Notebook (composition or standard one-subject)

Pens/Pencils

U.S. Government/Economics:

Three-ringed Binder (1.5)

Binder Dividers (4)

Notebook (one-subject)

Pens/Pencils

Mr. Blackburn –

Living Environment

- 2x 3-ring binder
- Pens
- Pencils

Earth Science

- 3-ring binder
- Pens
- Pencils

Ecology Elective

- 3-ring binder
- Pens
- Pencils

Ms. Bouvier - ELA

Blue or black ink pens

Three-subject notebook, preferably with pockets

Mrs. Kokes - Chorus

Black dress pants and black dress shoes

Pencils with erasers

Mr. Knowles - Global 9 and Global 10

3 ring binder (1" or 1.5")

Lined paper (notebook or binder paper)

Blue or black ink pens

Tina LaCount - All Art Classes:

1. Drawing Pencils (can substitute for #2 pencils)
2. Eraser (s)
3. Sketchbook – White Drawing Paper (9 x 12 or similar size)
Paper will be provided for assignments if unable to get a sketchbook.
4. Black Pilot Pen or Black Sharpie Pen (Fine Point)

Mrs. Light - Chemistry

3 Ring Binder

Calculator

Mrs. Menard – H.S. Band

Foldable Music Stand

Pencils

Cap Erasers

Staff Paper

Rubank Intermediate Book for Their Instrument

Mrs. Miller - Spanish

Notebook

Folder

Pens and pencils

Mr. Mullen – ELA

Binder/Folder

Loose Leaf Paper

Notebook

Pens in Blue or Black Ink (red and neon colors are not allowed).

1-2 Highlighters

Cheap Pair of Head phones (to be plugged into a standard port. Bluetooth will not be allowed).

Karen O'Brian –

Pens (blue or black ink, no gel pens)

Pencils

Erasers

Loose-Leaf Paper

Notebooks

Pocket Folders

Standard Calculator

Binders for CV-TEC Students

Highlighters

Mr. Oshier – Living Environment

1" 3-ring Binder. Larger binders will not fit in student cabinets.

Mrs. Pinsonneault – Algebra and Algebra A2

A folder or 3-ring binder to hold all handouts.

Paper... this can be a notebook or folder with loose leaf whichever works best for you for note taking

Graph paper

Pencil or pen (no red ink)

Scientific Calculator for home use. A graphing calculator will be used in class and will be provided during class and on the state tests only. If you are going to purchase your own graphing calculator, a TI-83+ is highly recommended.

This is what we use in school.

All of these materials must be brought to every class.

Mrs. Pinsonneault - Calculus/Pre-Calculus

Paper... this can be a notebook or folder with loose leaf whichever works best for you for note taking

Pencil or pen (no red ink)

Your book, which should be covered.

Scientific Calculator for home use. A graphing calculator will be used in class and will be provided during the school day only. If you are going to purchase your own graphing calculator, a TI-83+ is highly recommended. This is what we use in school.

All of these materials must be brought to every class.

Gretchen Rabideau – ELA - 11th Grade English

1" binder with paper OR a one subject notebook and folder for handouts.

College English

Small 1/2 inch binder with paper or a one-subject notebook

Mrs. Ribis – French

1-2 packs of 3x5 index cards

French to English dictionary

Binder or strong folder

Mr. Seymour – US History, Government

Pens

Three-ring Binder

Mrs. Stein - Finite and Statistics

Materials:

- 1.) Notebook
- 2.) Graph Paper
- 3.) Ruler/Straight Edge
- 4.) The school will supply a graphing calculator as needed, TI-83 +
- 5.) Pencils and Pens

Mrs. Stein - Geometry (Regents and Non-Regents)

Materials:

- 1.) Large Binder
- 2.) Graph Paper
- 3.) Ruler/Straight Edge
- 4.) Calculator (Scientific) for homework
The school will supply a graphing calculator for all graded assignments, TI-83 +
- 5.) Pencils and Pens (Blue or Black Ink)
- 6.) Compass (Used to make Circles)
- 7.) 3 X 5 cards